BOOK SYNOPSIS

First book of the best-selling series! James did ask to be summoned! Not really... well a maybe he had, but only a little bit! But he had certainly not AGREED to be summoned! ... Well technically speaking he HAD agreed, but good god, who had the time to read all of that fine print when there was epic gaming to be done! When DangerZone Industries had released the latest and greatest virtual reality online game, James, and millions of other virtual reality players, had sought purpose and self-definition in this new world. The tag line "Live the life your soul was meant for," had captured the hearts and minds of his entire generation. "The Land," was the largest and most dynamic virtual reality game of all time. James and his friends had devoted countless hours to the game, and had become one of the top teams in the game. They were at the brink of greatness, but then there was this light! (it was predictably white, but whatever!) When James was physically summoned to The Land, it was both disturbing and exhilarating. When he then became entangled in the eternal war of sprites and goblins, the unsavory practices of the local king, and had a memorable night at the inn called the Whistling Hen, he came to one clear conclusion: Getting eaten alive by wolves was really REALLY the worst! While uncovering such deep philosophical knowledge, James will forge a place in this new world, and hopefully avoid the machinations of those who want him to destroy it. What does it mean to be a Chaos Seed anyway?
